1835-A ENDS!

"Revenge is Sweet" and "Baldhorne Bourse" to Begin!

We have a winner in "1835-A". Congratulations to Chuck Hanna!

With the passing of "1835-A" comes the announcement of the arrival of "Revenge is Sweet", a new 1830 game start. Signed up are Butitta, Chinnery, Egtvedt, Hanna, R. Fisher, and Quist (the first four of whom just finished 1835-A; hence, the name). Farrow and Bodkin await if any of these worthies changes his mind. Each of these should include his vote on the Optional 6-train and his bids and purchase orders for Stock Round 1. Ms Nar, clad in the flimsy negligee of Fate, has randomly determined that the player order shall be: Quist, Hanna, Fisher, Chinnery, Butitta, Egtvedt.

We're opening another Bourse, this time pegged to "Boris VII" and using a different set of rules. Check it out on the bottom of p 12, concoct a nom de guerre, and start trading!

Scott Cameron has kindly sent along copies of his systems for History of the World, Britannia, Republic of Rome, Blackbeard, and Conquistador. These, Kremlin, Gunslinger, Life-Off, Down with the King, Darkover, Titan, Kamakura, Circus Maximus, and 1829 are being considered for the next game opening. Let your druthers be known by signing up for your favorite(s) soonest.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: The joy of contemplating another's misfortunes is the purest of joy.
---Wagner

Congratulations go out to Ron and Jason Fisher on the 2 Dec birth of Emily Michelle (their first granddaughter/niece (respectively)).

Brad Wilson, still unemployed, tells me his next issue of VERTIGO is ready to go as soon as he gets some cash for the duplication and postage. C'mon, Chicago! Hire this guy!

This may be the last issue of BORIS in this format as we got an ink-jet printer over the holidays. But for being unable to shrink my graphics, this issue would have been printed using it. Maybe I'll fix it out by next month.

Boris will be teaching Monday and Wednesday nights this semester, so those of you who tend to call in orders, take heed. And always be prepared to talk to the answering machine first. There are a lot of rabid insurance salesmen and hungry stock brokers out lately.

BOOS & KUDOS

This month's Madame Bolduc Press Excellence Award goes to the author of the black-eyed pea recipe in DUNE.

This month's Ms Nar Super-Sudsy Bomb goes to Lord Devoni (aka Baron Harkonnen, TJ Klausuris, etc) for forgetting the deadline.

A Personal Message(?):

DEADLINE FOR ALL GAMES IS NOON (CST) 5 FEB 94

English & Italian Armies Slaughtered!

SPRING 1911

CLIFFHOME--In a season of fierce fighting, half of both the British and Italian armies were destroyed. Wormtongue stands astride 16 centers, but this could be his peak. Both ROM and MUN can be easily retaken in the Fall. More worrisome is STP, where it's 50:50 that the Austrians can take the center--and a guaranteed NWY in the Spring. Even retaking his capital, Lord Devoni looks to lose four centers this year. Lord One-Eyed gets BRE, SPA, and POR for DEN (and perhaps STP). Germany gets MAR, DEN and an Austrian raider behind his lines, but will have at best only one center to build in. On the other hand, a puppet Italian government in the captured capital could hand over ROM, NAP, and TUN hoping that the crapsheet at STP will grant victory to its Red Master.

EMBASSY BEAT

VIENNA--Overheard in the Archduke's chambers today, "Oh, my son, Rob, my son, my son, Rob. If only I had died instead of you! Oh, Rob, my son, my son."

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Neue Zuercher Zeitung: (Rome) Austrian troops went on a 17-hour rampage of burning and looting as they entered the Eternal City. That's right, burning, then looting. Fully 95% of the enlisted troops had to be treated for 1st degree burns received when handling red-hot treasures. They were evidently too injured to go on to the raping. The unsinged 5% are officially AWOL, but are believed to have gotten misdirected to Munich where they are happily sacking the breweries.

New York Times: The Sons of Italy have announced they will personally recruit young Italians to save the Pope and Vatican. Alarmed by the apparent disregard of Lord Devoni of the Austrian invasion, many descendants of the peninsula have flocked to the recruiting halls. Foreign service officials have reminded the volunteers that swearing allegiance to foreign countries military would lose US citizenship. The Sons of Italy have avoided that problem by creating an Italian Foreign Legion, swearing to serve only an organization. On other fronts, Italian army officials have in North Africa announced they would form a Free Italian government if Lord Devoni refuses to combat the evil empire of the East.

GM-Germany: Your orders arrived 50 hours late.

GM-Italy: Yours were even later.

Austria Pushes West!!!

Spring 1905

WALL STREET JOURNAL--Austria and Russia remain in lockstep as they push westward. Austria faces little resistance as her fleets(!) sweep the Med towards the critical chokepoint of Gibraltar, but Russia is about to run into the British naval wall. Meanwhile her southern fleets are quietly maneuvering to rip out Austria's underbelly. France and Italy are still locked in a death-dance. Look to the kronor to go up in the short run, but then to fall to the ruble in a few years.

EMBASSY BEAT

Italy-Austria: Remember: in DIPLOMACY, second place is the same as last place.

Russia-England: I wasn't "whining." If you don't want to coordinate action, that's your loss.

Russia-France: Austria made a better offer.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Washington Post--President Roosevelt's speech today to a Joint Session of Congress was as rousing as anticipated. Citing the growing Russian and Austrian naval might as a direct threat to American trading interests in China and around the world, and declaring that "an Austro-Russian victory over England and Germany would extinguish Democracy's bright flame and Liberty's sweet song throughout Europe well into the next century." This too he claimed, would be disastrous for American foreign trade.

The largely Democratic House seemed unmoved. Rep Philip Buster (D, SC) claimed that the New England gun manufacturers were behind the intervention movement since, "They see the War over there as just about over. So they want to prolong it to keep sales up, and the US entering the War would land them fat War Department contracts and boost sales to England and France."

Senator Jack S. Foghorn (Independent, Dogpatch), sees it differently. "It's time America took her rightful place in the forefront of the Great Powers. It's time we established an Empire greater than the British. We could start with annexing Canada and the Bahamas!" Reminded that those particular territories belong to Britain which, presumably, would be on our side, the Senator hastily explained that that he was proposing we trade King Edward and Lord Flapjack a couple of dozen destroyers, three battleships, and passes to the World Series for the territories.

RUSSIAN INVASION THWARTED!!

Spring 1901

VII

Markwood: Early indications are that Pan-German solidarity grips Mittel Europa, England and Italy are anti-French, Austria trusts no one who isn't a Germanophone, and Turkey has ambitions of repudiating the Treaty of Karlowitz. France, Germany, and Russia should take heed, and step v-e-r-r-y carefully. Turkey has the luxury of thwarting an Austrian build or possibly destroying the Russian southern fleet.

EMBASSY BEAT

Italy - Austria: Well, now what?

VIENNA-In an interview with Die Wiene Zeit yesterday, the Austro-Hungarian Chief-of-Staff, Count Conrad von Hotzendorff commented on the recent allegations of supply corruptions and ethnic uprisings with the army. He is quoted as saying, "Our army is strong and under control. The rebellions have been stamped out and those responsible will be severely punished. The Hapsburg Empire is not divided and will hold firm in the face of all opposition. We have a 500,000 man army in 49 divisions with at least two million on reserve, ready to support our allies.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Berlin Diplomatic Digest-A treaty with Austria has been negotiated to protect the southern borders of the nation. It is hoped that the alliance of the Germano-Austrian peoples will create stability in the uncertain times ahead.

In other news, the German Navy has sailed into EAL to demonstrate to its western neighbors the peaceful intent of its fleet in keeping the Baltic fishing grounds open for navigation.

Berlin Press-The Reich has noted the mobilization of all the powers surrounding the Fatherland. We ask that all reconsider this mass war hysteria. We are forced by circumstances to recall soldiers from leave to fill the ranks of our modest army.

General Order #1. All leaves are cancelled, all soldiers and sailors will report back to their units and ships immediately.

Tour Le Monde-Sources in the Vatican have absolutely no comment on anything today. This bodes well for the domestic pasta and vino industries....

CLASSIFIEDS

The game is afoot!

Fra-Ita: I'm looking forward to our relationship, and a peaceful Pie.

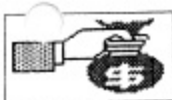

Fra-Aus: It's good to have you aboard - the German doesn't stand a chance now!

MAGIC REALM

Moondoggie Misteel
Amber Fende Korseel

The Cast

John Butitta:
Scott Cameron:
Don Chinnery:
Dan Farrow:
Marcel Carbonneau
Richard Price:
Jack Shacklett:

"Moondoggie" the Sorcerer (Bushytail, Misty)
"Black Bart" the Black Knight
"Scitch" the Witch King (Ribbit! Silky)
"Woolly" the optional Wizard
"Amber Rose" the Amazon
"Sir Jordan" the White Knight
"Fang Gulfwulf" the Berserker

ERRATA: Moondoggie is at CV4, not Cr3. We forgot to include a short sword and the Royal Scepter in the Guard's pile of abandoned goodies. Woolly thus also looted a treasure and Bart got the M6/L4* workhorse. Bart only earned 1BN since Cecil, Bart, and Cyril each killed one guard; for the multipliers of Rule 35.1/1 to be in effect, Bart would have had to personally kill all three. See Rule 35.2/2, which also says Bart should've only gotten 4G out of the deal. I haven't done the gold that way before in this game, so we'll let that slide for the duration.

BOURSE

BOLDHOME BOURSE BEGINS!
OLD GAME RENAMED "ALDA-CHUR"

BOURSE is a generic set of games of speculation in foreign exchange that are coupled to the outcome of DIPLOMACY games. We are currently running two separate and different games. Each game is open to all players except those playing in the DIP game to which it is pegged.

ALDA-CHUR: (Pegged to BORIS VI on page 3). Each player starts out with $1000 American and can invest it in the currencies of the European Great Powers. Each unit of European currency costs its current number of supply centers in dollars. Players can buy and sell currencies freely except after a Spring turn (the Bourse is closed to prevent panic selling and rampant speculation). Of course the player with the best net worth at game's end will be the winner.

LAST SEASON'S ERRATA: RETW should've been credited with 80 kroner.

SPRING 1905 ACTION:

RETW ($25) sells 1 lira (+$3) and 30 pounds (+$180) and buys 20 kroner (-$200).
FROG sells 175 pounds (+$1050) and buys 20 rubles (-$220), 200 francs (-$800) and 3 kroner (-$30).

Company	$	Kroner	Pounds	Francs	Lira	Rubler	Value
RVE	1	153	0	0	0	150	$3183
NEWBOT	4	192	0	0	0	74	$2738
PRB	0	0	1	0	0	220	$2426
USED	0	50	70	0	0	100	$2220
RETW	8	180	34	0	0	162	$2106
WOMEX	1	0	333	0	0	0	$1999
FROG	0	3	0	200	0	70	$1600
MT	0	0	0	0	345	0	$1035
CCH	1	80	0	0	0	0	$801

LEGEND: CCH = Corporation for Currency Holding, FROG = Federal Reserve Option and Guarantee, NEWBOT = Neenah World Board of Trade, PRB = People's Revolutionary Bank, RETW = Retired Wayne, RVE = RV Exchange, USED (formerly RF) = Uranian Circus Exchange & Depository, WOMEX = Wordelmann's Monetary Exchange

The Bourse is closed this Season.

PRESS:

Your money's really working for you when it's USED.

C'mon, Scott!

BOLDHOME: (Pegged to Boris VII on page 4) Each player starts with 1000 units of the currencies presently in the game (currently, Austrian crowns, English pounds, French francs, German marks, Italian lira, Russian rubles, and Turkish piasters). New players may start at any time. Each currency starts at $1/unit. For every even 100 units of currency that are bought or sold in a turn, the currency's value rises or drops by $.01. Players may not buy on margin, but may hold dollars. A player may never sell more than 500 units of a currency at a time. Minimum price of a currency is $.01 unless the country is eliminated, then the price is $0. The Boldhome Bourse is never closed. At game's end, scores are computed by multiplying the number of 100 unit blocks of each nation's currency held by the player times its number of supply centers and summing over all active countries. High total is the winner.

EXAMPLE: Pounds are currently at $1.00. If players sell 750 and buy 1210, the pound will go up $0.04 ((1210-750)/100 rounded down).

EXAMPLE: If at game's end Italy had 18 centers, Russia 14, and Turkey 2, and if Sam held 5000 lire and 250 rubles, he would score  $(50 \times 18) + (2 \times 14) = 928$  points.
